EVENT COMMITTEES:

Walk-a Thon Committee – Meets just as school starts to plan our biggest fundraiser of the year. Responsible for setting up and organizing: music, decorations, games during the event, treats after the Walk-a-Thon, the pep rally and cheers, the ordering of T-shirts, sponsors, advertising, money collection envelopes, and tracking donated funds. The monies are used to support our budget which includes assemblies, Patriot Program, Family Reading Project, STEM Night, and more.

Book Fair Committee – Organizes a book fair in the late winter. Sets up, decorates and takes down the event, creates flyers. The largest task is obtaining and organizing volunteers to run the cash register and assist students with their purchases.

Trunk-or-Treat Committee – In partnership with Jarrettsville Elementary and the Jarrettsville Volunteer Fire Company, this group puts together a Trunk-or-Treat event on a weekend selected by the JVFC.

Holiday Restaurant Committee – Plans and gathers volunteers for a holiday themed lunch served in the cafeteria. Committee will decorate, advertise and coordinate with the cafeteria staff to plan the event.

Winter Wonderland Committee – Creates a fun craft night at North Bend on one evening in December. The committee sets up stations and plans crafts. Activities include: writing letters to Santa, visits with Santa, making ornaments, making picture frames and many more.

Book Fair Committee – Organizes a book fair in the late winter. Sets up, decorates and takes down the event, creates flyers. The largest task is obtaining and organizing volunteers to run the cash register and assist students with their purchases.

Bingo Night Committee – A Family Bingo Night held in the cafeteria. The committee is responsible for organizing door prizes, prizes for games, arranging food to be sold, and securing a bingo caller/MC for the event.

Original Works Committee – This is a onetime event held in the fall where children create a drawing which is sent to Original Works. Parents can purchase t-shirts, mugs, plates, etc. featuring their child's artwork. The committee organizes the art materials, secures volunteers to help children, and manages the sign up.

Donuts with Grownups Committee– A before school event where parents are invited to have breakfast with their children. Coordinated with the week of Book Fair, the committee organizes food/drinks (donuts, fruits) and volunteers to serve.

Bus Driver Appreciation Committee – An on-the-go breakfast and other treats distributed to bus drivers during morning drop-off. Held at the end of April on National Bus Driver Appreciation Day.

5th Grade Farewell Committee – Organized by 5th grade parents with 5th grade teachers. Plans/organizes food/drinks/games/t-shirt for their end of year party.

Staff Appreciation Week Committee – Provides thank you gifts for staff during one week in May.

Spirit Night Committee – Organizes monthly family fun nights at various community restaurants which will help raise money for our PTA but also provide a night out for students to meet their friends outside of school.

NON-EVENT COMMITTEES:

Bear Reading Program Committee – The volunteer for this program sends out monthly reading logs to students to track reading times. Comes in monthly to collect the logs and distributes prizes/coupons for students who complete reading that month. Volunteer coordinates with local businesses to secure prizes/coupons.

Reflections Committee – Each fall through winter, National PTA has a theme each year for students to creatively interpret through dance, art, photography or writing. This committee is responsible for advertising the event, and organizing people to judge entries. Volunteer also plans a Reflections Showcase night in January/February

Yearbook Committee – This committee is responsible for creating (designing) and publishing our yearbook. They will need to secure photographers and a publisher. This begins in September and is ready to submit for publication by the end of April.

Nominating Committee– Meets in March to find new officers for open positions and organizes the general election in May. Five people are needed for this committee.

Staff Birthday Lunch & Catered Meals Committee – Volunteers organize quarterly teacher birthday lunches, as well as a few catered meals throughout the year.

Beautification Committee – Helps to take care of flower beds and other small projects around school. Updates lobby periodically to engage students.

Sponsorship Committee – Procures gifts and funds from area businesses. Businesses donate in exchange for advertisement on our PTA Facebook page, NBPTA.com website, and Walk-A-Thon t-shirts.

Fundraising Committee – Organizes a large catalog fundraiser once per school year.
